Meeting for the first time.

On May 15th, 2022, our partner consortium finally gathered for our first in-person meeting in the charming Greek port city of Thessaloniki. Due to the pandemic, we had to postpone our plans for this long-awaited get-together. Thankfully, the wonderful team at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (AUTH) graciously hosted us for a day filled with warmth and hospitality. While not everyone could join us, those who did made the most of our time together. We discussed CIP's objectives, built stronger connections, and laid out plans for the future. It was a productive and memorable meeting for all involved.

Our Plan

In the coming months, we will develop a competence framework focuses on entrepreneurial, digital facilitation and conveyance . We will also develop a continuous professional develop course for artists, entrepreneurs, and adult educators who are interested in the concept of cultural innopreneur

Our Website

We will be provide updates of our project and publishing our report and project outputs as we progress.

Don't miss out!
